IN OCTOBER 2015, BURSA MALAYSIA LAUNCHED ITS SUSTAINABILITY REPORTING FRAMEWORK, COMPRISING THE AMENDED LISTING REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO SUSTAINABILITY DISCLOSURES AND THE BURSA SUSTAINABILITY REPORTING GUIDE AND TOOLKITS.

This course supports the process set by Bursa Malaysia and will assist participants to meet those requirements. It uses the same material delivered during the Bursa workshops and is provided by the same instructors. In-house training for this course is also available; please contact us for more information.

THE WORKSHOP INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING CORE MODULES:

Current sustainability issues: Explains current environmental, social and economic issues rated to sustainability and its evolution.

Importance of sustainability to investors and business: Addresses why sustainability is important to investors and business and presents the business case.

Governance structures: Outlines governance structures for managing sustainability.

Understanding the organisation's context: Explains how to determine an organisation's context.

Stakeholders and their role: Explains the role of stakeholders and their engagement.

Sustainability impacts and their identification: Explains sustainability impacts and their identification.

Sustainability risks and opportunities and materiality: Identify and prioritise material sustainability matters (case studies, group exercises).

Setting sustainability objectives and targets: Explains the use of indicators to setting performance outcomes.

Measuring and monitoring sustainability: Explains the need to collect and verify sustainability data.

Bursa Malaysia's Amended Listing Requirements Relating to Sustainability Disclosures: Outlines the Bursa sustainability reporting requirements and best practice issues.
