

This is a HRD Corp Claimable Course

GRI Standards Certified Training

Includes the GRI courses:

- Reporting with the GRI Standards
- Reporting on Human Rights with the GRI Standards

...and an additional session on Introduction to GHG Accounting

DATE

3 - 5 August 2026

TIME

9.00am - 5.00pm

VENUE

TBA, Kuala Lumpur

(In-Person Session)

First and Most Established GRI Standards Certified Training Provider in Malaysia Since 2012

Our training is grounded in practical reporting experience. Having supported organisations in applying the GRI Standards in their sustainability reporting processes, we draw on local case studies and real examples in our approach, making us a trusted choice for GRI Standards training in Malaysia.

TRAINING PARTNER

2026

Batch
41

WHY THIS TRAINING MATTERS

Growing expectations for credible sustainability reporting require organisations to better understand and communicate their impacts on the economy, environment and people, including human rights. Climate change and increasing attention on GHG emissions are also raising reporting expectations, while Malaysia's National Action Plan on Business and Human Rights (NAPBHR) 2025–2030 reinforces the importance of responsible business conduct.

ABOUT THIS TRAINING

- A 3-day face-to-face programme on the practical use of the GRI Standards for reporting impacts on the economy, environment and people, including human rights.
- Designed for participants who are new to sustainability reporting, as well as experienced sustainability report preparers, reviewers and contributors.
- Includes a session on reporting on human rights and an additional session on introduction to greenhouse gas (GHG) accounting.

PROGRAMME AT A GLANCE

Day 1 & 2

Introduction to sustainability concepts and current sustainability issues

Structure and use of the GRI Universal, Sector and Topic Standards

Identifying impacts, determining material topics, and reporting relevant disclosures

Sustainability reporting principles

Day 3 - AM

Introduction to human rights

Fundamentals of the GRI Standards and human rights

Reporting expectations and disclosures for human rights

Day 3 - PM

Key concepts in GHG emissions accounting

Understanding Scope 1, Scope 2 and Scope 3 emissions

Introduction to GHG data collection and calculation approaches

Considerations for developing a GHG inventory

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN

By the end of the training, participants should be able to:

- Understand how the GRI Standards are structured and applied in impact-based sustainability reporting.
- Identify their organisation's impacts on the economy, environment and people, including human rights, as well as apply key sustainability reporting principles and GRI disclosure requirements.
- Understand the relevance of human rights transparency to business and apply the human rights related disclosures.
- Understand basic GHG accounting concepts.
- Build confidence through practical examples, exercises and discussion.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND THIS TRAINING?

This course is suitable for sustainability practitioners, report preparers, C-suite executives, students and others with an interest in sustainability reporting. It is also useful for report users such as NGOs, financial analysts, government officials and media. There are no specific knowledge prerequisites for this course.

This training is relevant to persons working in functions including, but not limited to:

• Sustainability and ESG

• Occupational Health and Safety

• Corporate Strategy

• Finance

• Investor Relations

• Environmental Management

• Human Resources

• Corporate Communications

• Risk and Compliance

• Procurement and Supply Chain

This training covers 2 of the 4 courses required under the GRI Professional Certification Program. The remaining required courses and the GRI Professional Certification Exam are not included in this training. Participants who wish to pursue the GRI Professional certification will need to independently arrange for and complete the remaining courses and pass the GRI Certification Exam, in accordance with GRI requirements.

Training Fee: RM 3,900 per person

Total fee = RM 4,212 including 8% SST

This course is HRD Corp Claimable for HRD Corp Registered Employers

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Participants with full attendance are eligible to receive the applicable certificates of completion from GRI.

GRI ABOUT THE GLOBAL REPORTING INITIATIVE (GRI)

The Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) is an independent, international organization that helps businesses and other organizations take responsibility for their impacts by providing a global common language to communicate those impacts through the use of the GRI Standards.

GRI develops sustainability reporting standards through a multi-stakeholder process involving business, non-governmental organizations, research institutions and other stakeholders from around the world.

ABOUT NCCR

The National Center for Corporate Reporting (NCCR) is an independent organization which promotes and communicates GRI Standards in the region. NCCR is an Organizational Stakeholder of the GRI since 2006 and a GRI certified training partner in Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore and the Philippines since 2011.

Email: projects@nccr.id

This course is marketed in Malaysia on behalf of NCCR by SHEMSI SDN BHD.

REGISTRATION FORM

Register now via Google forms by clicking here or scanning this code:

PAYMENT, REGISTRATION & CANCELLATION POLICY

1. Please complete the registration form. Submission of this form is a commitment to pay the registration fee.
2. Registration deadline is 17 July 2026. Payment deadline is 17 July 2026.
3. Participants in one organisation can exchange names without extra costs but needs to be provided in writing.
4. Cancellations within 7 days before the training, and no shows will be charged the full participation fee.
5. There will be no refund for the participation fee for cancellations after 27 July 2026.
6. Participants applying for the HRD Corp training grant who cancel after 27 July 2026 are expected to pay the full fee.
7. Limited space available.
8. The National Center for Corporate Reporting can opt to change the program without prior notice.

If you have any queries about this upcoming session in Kuala Lumpur, please email mira@shemsi.com.